Dear Mr. Broaddus:

Service in accordance with international treaty (formal service) is the proper method of service for the country of Mexico. The United States and Mexico are both party to the Hague Convention on the Service Abroad of Judicial and Extra-Judicial Documents in Civil or Commercial Matters, TIAS #10072 (U.S. Treaties & other International Acts) and 20 UST 361 (U.S. Treaties & other International Agreements). Informal methods of service are not allowed.

For the country of Mexico, service and return of proof of service in accordance with the Hague Convention generally takes 4-6 months or longer from the time the request for service is submitted to the Mexican Central Authority (Ministry of Foreign Relations). Service is entirely in the hands of the Mexican government, Mexican courts and their officials. It is not possible for us to 'speed up' the process.

Your documents were submitted to the Mexican Central Authority on May 17, 2005 and delivered to the Mexican Central Authority on May 20, 2005, as confirmed by FedEx. You will require an extension for service. In our experience, U.S. courts are generally very understanding in allowing the necessary time to complete the complex and proper service as required by international treaty.

Defendant(s)

PLAINTIFFS' UNOPPOSED MOTION FOR ADDITIONAL EXTENSION OF TIME
FOR SERVICE OF PROCESS ON UNAUTHORIZED FOREIGN CORPORATIONS
PURSUANT TO THE HAGUE CONVENTION

Plaintiffs, pursuant to CPLR §§ 306-b and 2004, and with the consent of counsel for defendants served with process in the United States, hereby request an extension of time of an additional 180 days from the date of the Order herein, without prejudice to seeking further extension should service be impracticable, or to whichever date the Court may direct, to effect service pursuant to the Hague Convention on certain unauthorized foreign defendants, and certain of their officers and directors, located in Mexico.¹

BACKGROUND

1. This action was commenced by filing a Verified Complaint and Summons in this Court on October 15, 2004.

2. Service of process has been effected on defendants whose principal places of business are in the United States.²

3. On December 20, 2004, this Court granted Plaintiffs' Unopposed Motion To Appoint Special Process Server to Effect Service of Process on an Unauthorized Foreign Corporation Pursuant to the Hague Convention. Plaintiffs thereafter retained an international process server, APS International, to effect service of process pursuant to the Hague Convention

¹ Consent to this motion was obtained from: 1) David Lurie, Esq., Vinson & Elkins, counsel for Ernst & Young LLP and Ernst & Young Corporate Finance, LLC, 2) James Beha, Esq., Winston & Strawn, counsel for JP Morgan Chase & Company, f/k/a Chase Manhattan Bank & Trust Company, 3) Roger Hawke, Esq., Sidley Austin Brown & Wood, counsel for Americas Mining Corporation, and 4) Leo Gagon, Esq., Dewey Ballantine, counsel for Credit Suisse First Boston, Inc., Credit Suisse First Boston, LLC, Credit Suisse First Boston (USA).

² Service of process has been effected upon the following defendants in the United States: JP Morgan Chase & Company f/k/a Chase Manhattan Bank & Trust Company, Americas Mining Corporation, Ernst & Young LLP, and Ernst & Young Corporate Finance, LLC, Credit Suisse First Boston, Inc., Credit Suisse First Boston, LLC, and Credit Suisse First Boston (USA), Inc. Southern Peru Holdings Corporation and SPHC II have been served but there is no record of counsel entering an appearance as of yet. A "Stipulation of Discontinuance Regarding Daniel Tellechia Salido Only" was filed on December 14, 2004. By Stipulation, the plaintiffs have agreed with the defendants who have been served that they shall not be required to answer the complaint or otherwise plead until service upon the defendants located in Mexico has been effected pursuant to the Hague Convention.

on the unauthorized, foreign defendants located in Mexico.³

4. On February 5, 2005, plaintiffs filed their Ex Parte Application for Extension of Time to Effect Service on An Unauthorized Foreign Corporation pursuant to CPLR § 311(b).⁴ At that time, plaintiffs requested an additional 180 days to complete the service in Mexico.

5. On February 7, 2005 plaintiffs filed a First Amended Complaint adding three new defendants -- Credit Suisse First Boston, Inc., Credit Suisse First Boston, LLC, and Credit Suisse First Boston (USA), Inc. Service on these defendants was effected on February 10, 2005.

6. On February 14, 2005, plaintiffs provided APS International with 15 copies of the certified Original and First Amended complaint and summonses for service upon the defendants. Plaintiffs also provided APS with a certified copy of the Order appointing APS as the international process server.

7. On February 16, 2005 the Court signed its Order (see Affirmation, Exhibit A, submitted herewith) granting plaintiff an additional 120 days from the date of the entry of the Order to effect service of process on the defendants located in Mexico. The Order was filed in the Clerk's office on February 22, 2005. Service of process on the Mexican defendants is therefore presently required to be completed by June 16, 2005.

³ The unauthorized foreign corporations and corporate officials being served in Mexico pursuant to the Hague Convention are: Grupo Mexico S. A. de C.V., Grupo Minero Mexico Internacional, S.A. de C.V., Mexicana de Cobre, S.A. de C.V., Controladora Minera Mexico, S.A. de C.V., German Larrea Mota-Velasco, and Oscar Gonzalez Rocha.

⁴ On June 15, 2005, plaintiffs filed their "Ex Parte Application for Additional Extension of Time for Service of Process on Unauthorized Foreign Corporations Pursuant to the Hague Convention." Movants thereafter received a memorandum from the Clerk of the Ex Parte Motion Part dated June 15, 2005 requiring movant to redraft and resubmit the motion pursuant to CPLR §§ 306-b and 2004. This motion is therefore redrafted and resubmitted pursuant to the Clerk's memorandum. The memorandum further states: "KINDLY RETURN THIS MEMORANDUM WHEN PAPERS ARE RESUBMITTED." The memorandum is attached as Exhibit B to the accompanying Affirmation.

8. On February 17, 2005, the plaintiffs filed their Second Amended Complaint correcting a number of the corporate names of the Mexican defendants and amending the complaint to assert a class action.

9. Thereafter, based on discussions with APS International, further research was required to confirm the correct spellings of the names of the corporate entities as well as of the individual corporate officers of the Mexican defendants. Review of the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC) filings by the companies who are related to, or subsidiaries of, the Mexican companies, which refer to the Mexican entities and corporate officers in their filings, indicated that the translations from Spanish into English for purpose of the SEC filings and English language web sites resulted in minor but significant variations in spellings. Comparison of the spellings on the web sites of the Mexican corporate entities with the spellings in the SEC filings also revealed similar variations.

10. On March 31, plaintiffs overnighted to APS a letter with corrected spellings along with certified copies of the First Amended Complaint and the Second Amended Complaint.

11. On April 1, plaintiffs forwarded, at APS's request, an additional court certified copy of the order appointing APS as special process server.

12. On May 17, APS finished the translation of the original, First Amended, and Second Amended Complaints, as well as the appropriate forms for service of process under the Hague Convention in Mexico, and overnighted the appropriate documentation to the Central Authority in Mexico City, Mexico.

13. In correspondence dated June 7, 2005 (see Affirmation, Exhibit C, submitted herewith), APS advises that additional time is required to complete service in Mexico under the Hague Convention. APS states:

For the country of Mexico, service and return of proof of service in accordance with the Hague Convention generally takes 4-6 months or longer from the time the request for service is submitted to the Mexican Central Authority (Ministry of Foreign Relations). Service is entirely in the hands of the Mexican government, Mexican courts and their officials. It is not possible for us to 'speed up' the process.

Your documents were submitted to the Mexican Central authority on May 17, 2005 and delivered to the Mexican Central authority on May 20, 2005, as confirmed by FedEx. You will require an extension of service. (emphasis added)

(See Affirmation, Exhibit C, submitted herewith.)

ARGUMENT

14. CPLR § 306-b provides:

Service of the summons and complaint . . . shall be made within one hundred twenty days after filing of the summons and complaint . . .

If service is not made upon a defendant within the time provided in this section, the court, upon motion, shall dismiss the action without prejudice as to that defendant, or upon good cause shown or in the interest of justice, extend the time for service.

15. CPLR § 2004 provides:

Except where otherwise expressly prescribed by law, the court may extend the time fixed by any statute, rule or order for doing any act, upon such terms as may be just and upon good cause shown, whether the application for extension is made before or after the expiration of the time fixed.

16. As stated, APS now advises that additional time for service is needed because it will take 4 to 6 months or longer from May 20, 2005 to complete service of process on the Mexican corporations and corporate officers under the Hague Convention. APS further indicates that once delivery of the required documents to the Mexican Central Authority was effected on May 20, 2005, it is not possible for APS to “speed up” the process” because “service is entirely in the hands of the Mexican government, Mexican courts, and their officials.” Therefore, plaintiffs submit that good cause is shown, and the interests of justice would be served, by permitting an additional 180 days for service on these unauthorized foreign corporations located in Mexico.

17. Plaintiffs submit they have exercised all due diligence in preparing all required documentation for APS, in the filing of necessary First and Second Amended Complaints, in serving the defendants located in the United States, and in conducting the additional research necessary to confirm the correct spellings of the Mexican defendants. Plaintiffs have also shown due diligence in forwarding the certified copies of the First Amended and Second Amended Complaints to APS for translation into Spanish and for service on the Mexican defendants in order to avoid further delay. Such delay would have been occasioned by awaiting completion of service of the original complaint prior to instituting service of the First Amended and Second Amended Complaints.

18. Plaintiffs submit that due to the exigencies of service in Mexico on unauthorized foreign corporations, as confirmed by the APS correspondence, that good cause is shown and the interests of justice would be served to permit an extension of time of an additional 180 days to serve the defendants located in Mexico.

19. Attached hereto is plaintiffs’ Affirmation in support of this application with attached Order of this Court dated February 16, 2005 (Exhibit A), June 15, 2005 Memorandum of the Clerk with accompanying draft order (Exhibit B), and correspondence dated June 7, 2005, from APS International (Exhibit C).
